Getting There: Transportation Options

By Air

Bagdogra Airport (IXB) is the primary gateway to North Bengal, well-connected to major Indian cities including Delhi, Mumbai, Kolkata, Bengaluru, and Guwahati.

Here's a more concise version of the travel information:

- * Siliguri: 15 km, 20–30 minutes
- * New Jalpaiguri (NJP): 17 km, 30 minutes
 - * Kalimpong: 79 km, 2.5 hours
 - * Darjeeling: 95 km, 3 hours

Airport transfers: Pre-paid taxis available at airport counters (₹300-500 to NJP/Siliguri). Shared taxis and app-based cabs are also readily available.

Spring (March to May)

Excellent for flowers and comfortable weather

Weather: Mild to warm (18-28°C), occasional afternoon showers

Pros: Rhododendron blooms, tea gardens at their best, fewer crowds in March

Cons: Can get hot in the plains by May

Ideal for: Nature photographers, tea tourism, offbeat exploration

Monsoon (June to September)

Off-season with risks and rewards

Weather: Heavy rainfall, cooler temperatures (15-20°C)

Pros: Lush green landscapes, waterfalls at full flow, lowest prices, solitude

Cons: Landslide risks, limited mountain views, safari restrictions

Ideal for: Budget travelers, monsoon lovers (experienced travelers only)

Best monsoon destinations: Tabakoshi, Sittong, the lower Dooars areas

Avoid: July-August due to the heaviest rainfall and road disruption

Autumn (September to October)

Emerging favorite season

Weather: Post-monsoon freshness, clear skies (12-22°C)

Pros: Crystal-clear mountain views, lush post-rain greenery, moderate crowds

Ideal for: Photography, mountain views, comfortable exploration

Final Recommendations

For First-Time Visitors:

Focus on the classic circuit: Darjeeling (2 nights) → Kalimpong (1 night) → Mirik (1 night). This provides a good introduction to North Bengal's highlights without overwhelming travel.

For Offbeat Seekers:

Explore the Lava-Lolegaon-Rishop circuit, Sittong, Tinchuley, and lesser-known Dooars destinations.

Allocate more time and embrace slower travel.

For Wildlife Enthusiasts:

Dedicate 4-5 days to the Dooars region, covering multiple national parks and sanctuaries.

November-March offers the best sightings.

For Tea Lovers:

Stay at tea estate bungalows, visit multiple gardens, and participate in plucking and processing demonstrations. Spring (March-May) is ideal.

For Adventure Seekers:

Combine trekking (Sandakphu/Singalila), river rafting (Teesta), and paragliding (Kalimpong).

Responsible Tourism

- ✓ Support local homestays and businesses
- ✓ Avoid single-use plastic
- ✓ Don't disturb wildlife or feed animals
- ✓ Stay on marked trails
- ✓ Respect local cultures and traditions
- ✓ Take your trash with you from remote areas
- ✓ Choose eco-certified accommodations when possible

"North Bengal rewards travelers who take time to explore beyond the obvious. Whether you're watching sunrise paint Kanchenjunga golden from Tiger Hill, spotting a one-horned rhino in Gorumara's grasslands, or sipping fresh Darjeeling tea while gazing at valley views from a quiet homestay, this region offers experiences that linger long after you've returned home."

Happy Exploring!

Plan well, travel responsibly, and embrace
the unhurried pace of the mountains.

Best wishes from

Prithwiraj LAHIRI

Safe travels!
